Automation Test Senior Engineer

Job Specific Duties & Responsibilities

- Ability to understand requirements and technical reference documents and be able to review and escalate any issues/gaps during the initial stage of the project.
- Ability to write manual test cases and execute them.
- Ability to report test results to the leads and defect reporting.
- Responsible for automating different types of applications, such as desktop, web, mobile & api based on an identified scope.
- Responsible for setting up the automation framework and environments required for successful completion of Automation.
- Responsible for automating test scripting and test execution.
- Responsible for fixing any issues on automation scripts.
- Ability to understand, troubleshoot and differentiate defects, data issues and requirement gaps.
- Responsible for on-time delivery and timely escalations/update of risks, issues, status and exemptions to leadership.
- Effective communication with the team, leadership, internal and external customers covering all aspects of team needs.
- Awareness of different software development and QA methodologies.
- Stay up to date with the latest automation tools, technologies and trends.
- Ability to guide and support team members.
- Ability to do test estimations related to automation and calculate ROI.
- Ability to suggest or do improvements for test automation frameworks.

Requirement Competencies, Qualifications & Experience

- B.Sc. in Computer Science or related discipline or equivalent professional qualification.
- 3 - 5 years of relevant experience in Automation Mandatory.
- Knowledge in Web and Mobile technologies.
- Knowledge in Selenium, Java, Java Script, C#, Node JS or any other.
- Experience in BDD Cucumber Framework or any other.
- Experience in API Testing using Postman and API Automation.
- Experience in Mobile testing and mobile Automation.
- Competency around test management tools and defect tracking tools such as JIRA, Zephyr, Xray
- Knowledge of DevOps/CI/CD processes
- Good analytical skills, troubleshooting and resolution skills
- Ability to self-learn and grasp the knowledge quickly
- Knowledge of database structure languages, such SQL.
- Experience in the testing middle tier and service-oriented architectures.